Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1		Since 1914, HeartShare Human Services has been dedicated to bettering the lives of people in need of special services and supports. We help individuals develop to their fullest potential and lead meaningful lives. HeartShare launched a partnership with Virgin Mobile Assurance Wireless to provide cell phone service to low-income individuals and families. In total, more than 25,000 children, adults and families received services at one of HeartShare's 68 program sites. Children and adults with autism spectrum disorders and other developmental disabilities, families in crisis, children needing a safe place to go after school, adults with HIV/AIDS, children in foster care, families in danger of having their heat disconnected. HeartShare helps all of these people every day. In HeartShare's group homes for adults with developmental disabilities, individuals learn to cook meals, clean their rooms, budget their money, and more to increase their independence. A child with a developmental disability attending one of HeartShare's preschool programs sings songs, creates art projects and develops a foundation for academic learning. Through HeartShare's youth programs, children complete their homework before engaging in recreational and creative activities. Regardless of which service someone needs, HeartShare is here to help and respond to the call at all times. HeartShare's programs provide countless opportunities to those involved. Adults in the group homes also participate in a wide range of community activities which are both educational and recreational. Teens and adults with developmental disabilities living with their families have the chance to engage in social and entertaining activities through HeartShare's Family Support Services. Individuals and families affected by HIV/AIDS participate in group activities to reduce the feeling of isolation. For 97 years, HeartShare has responded to the changing needs of the community and will continue to do so for years to come. HeartShare is accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Services for Families and Children and is a Better Business Bureau Accredited Charity. We are proud to report that approximately 90 cents of every dollar of revenue goes directly to program services.
