Scotto, Merone and Calabrese Join HeartShare Board

(Brooklyn, NY)— HeartShare Human Services of New York is proud to announce that Rosanna Scotto, Valerie Merone and Salvatore Calabrese have been elected to its Board of Directors.

Rosanna Scotto, a Brooklyn native, is the co-anchor of the FOX 5 News at 5 pm and FOX 5 News at 10 pm. Scotto has been a member of the WNYW-FOX 5 News since 1986 and has won three Emmys for anchoring FOX 5 News at 10 and Good Day New York.

Valerie Merone, Executive Vice President of Publishing for Victoria's Secret Direct, is responsible for all catalogue operations, including print, paper and separations procurement, print production and technology, process management, vendor relationships, and operational execution. Prior to joining Victoria's Secret Direct in 2001, Merone was Vice President of Catalogue Operations for Saks Fifth Avenue.

Salvatore Calabrese is the owner of Century 21 Calabrese in Brooklyn. This office has been in business for more than 20 years, and has been ranked #1 for 10 years. Winner of the 2005 Centurion Award, Calabrese and his team of over 50 agents aim to meet all their clients' real estate needs.

HeartShare welcomes these new members and knows that they will have a positive impact on the work being done everyday by the agency. Celebrating its 92nd year, HeartShare assists more than 17,000 New Yorkers. Its wide spectrum of services helps children and adults with developmental disabilities, supports people affected by HIV/AIDS, provides counseling, after-school programs and assistance with foster care and adoption to children and families, and administers energy assistance programs.
