

HeartShare Human Services of New York
191 Joralemon Street
Brooklyn, NY 11201

For Immediate Release
April 18, 2006

Contact: Tiffany L. Johnson
(718) 422-3216

HeartShare Gala Raises Money for Needy New Yorkers

(Brooklyn, NY)—Commitment to helping others, along with their continuous efforts to improve the values of society, highlighted the achievements of HeartShare Human Services' honorees at its Annual Spring Gala and Auction. The New York Marriot Marquis in Times Square was host to HeartShare's gala on Tuesday, March 28.

President and CEO Bill Guarinello, along with Chairman of the Board of Directors Ralph Subbiondo, recognized the evenings' honorees: Florence and Michael J. DeSola of the DeSola Group; Lois and Richard Nicotra of the Nicotra Group; and Patricia Monachino of Morgan Stanley for their dedication to assisting those that HeartShare serves through HeartShare's fifty plus outreach programs.

More than 800 guests helped raise $800,000 to continue HeartShare's mission of serving those in the community. "Sopranos" stars Dominic Chianese, Vincent Curatola, Danny Grimaldi, Vincent Pastore, and Tony Sirico were in attendance supporting HeartShare's mission, along with theater favorites Danny Aiello, Barbara Feldon and Tony LoBianco.

HeartShare is a 501©(3) not-for-profit organization now celebrating its 92nd year of service to New Yorkers with programs throughout Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island. Its programs assist children and adults with developmental disabilities, children in foster care and after-school programs, families in crisis needing counseling services, and individuals and families affected by HIV and AIDS.

To assist HeartShare in continuing its mission of helping those in their time of need, donations can be made to the Public Affairs Department. Contact George Cincotta at (718) 422-3210 for more information.

###