Fore a Good Cause

(Brooklyn, NY)— Recently, golfers took to the links of the Colonia Country Club in Colonia, NJ for Heartshare Human Services of New York's 5th Annual Golf Classic. On a beautiful, sunny day, 100 golfers helped make it a record-breaking year by raising $100,000 for the Brooklyn-based agency.

It was a full day of golfing, eating, recognizing achievements on the course, and winning raffle prizes. Prizes were given to golfers who had the longest drive, came closest to the pin, and had the lowest gross and net scores. Some of the exciting raffle prizes included: 4 VIP Viewing Passes to the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, air fare and a week stay at Celebrity Resorts Palm Coast Condo, a 27" color television, an array of autographed sports memorabilia, gift certificates to numerous restaurants, and golf equipment.

HeartShare would like to thank all the golfers, Prudential Financial, DeSola Group, Loeb & Troper, Troy Electrical Contractors, John and Helen Sharkey, Hanover Moving and Storage, HSBC Bank USA, Sovereign Motor Cars, Joseph B. Guarinello, and the many other sponsors who helped make the day such a success.

Celebrating its 92 year, HeartShare is a nonprofit organization that assists more than 16,000 New Yorkers in Brooklyn, Queens, and Staten Island. Its wide spectrum of services helps individuals with developmental disabilities, supports people affected by HIV/AIDS, and provides counseling, after-school programs and assistance with foster care and adoption to children and families.
