Do The Right Thing...

Jimmy's commitment to and work on behalf of HeartShare are legendary.

He saw children with disabilities, and knew they needed specialized education and therapies to improve their lives. He saw young students with the special challenge of autism and inadequate programs to help them, and knew that had to change. He made sure that adults with developmental disabilities, especially the profound and severe cases, were cared for with dignity and respect. He saw children and teens without loving and caring homes, and knew they needed protection and guidance to survive and develop into responsible members of our community.

Jimmy enlisted his family and friends, literally rolled up his sleeves and got the job done. That work goes on today. The need still exists and, in some cases, is even greater. Jimmy's legacy lives on, and the Buckley and Casey families are committed to ensuring that it is remembered and flourishes.

Please honor Jimmy's memory. Support what he started and add to his successful efforts. Thank you.
