Dear Friends,

If there's one thing we've learned in these past two years, it's that nothing is more important than family. And that's why the 2022 HeartShare Spring Gala is a celebration of family—the HeartShare family, your Forever Family.

With that in mind, we decided to do something different this year to promote the Gala: Front and center on all Gala materials—the invitation, eblasts, banners, website and even the journal you're holding right now—are a few of the individuals in our care, the individuals who benefit from your support. There's Anthony, who never fails to remember everyone's birthday; Sheila, who is impeccably organized; Michael, whose favorite sport is wrestling; and Innenia, affectionately known as "Mimi," who loves balloons and Spanish music.

At the 2022 HeartShare Spring Gala, we're excited to welcome three new members of the HeartShare family, a trio of extraordinary individuals who are committed to helping people with autism and other developmental disabilities live their best lives: Cynthia McFadden, Senior Legal and Investigative Correspondent, NBC News; Michael W. Castellano, co-owner, Supreme Italian Market; and Douglas P. Catalano, Esq., Partner, Clifton, Budd & DeMaria, LLP.

Thank you for joining us and being a part of the HeartShare family. We can't do what we do without you.

Forever Family

Anthony

Anthony's memory is excellent. He remembers individual and staff birthdays. His brain works like a programmed alarm clock.

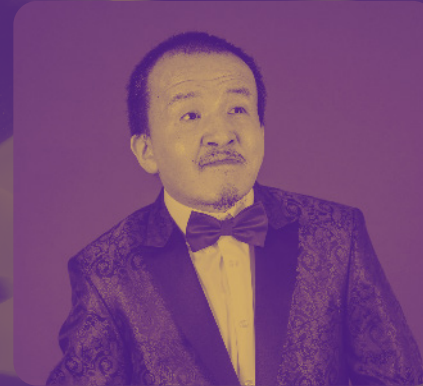

Lisa

It's hard not to fall in love with Lisa's eyes. Despite being unable to read, she knows how to spell staff members' names and will alert management when someone is late for work.

Sheila

At the residence, Sheila is known as "mama Sheila" or "mother hen." Her organization is impeccable.

Paul

Paul is non-verbal but very neat, and he has a very distinct smile.

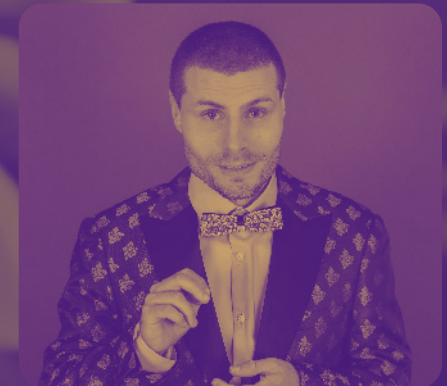

Michael

Michael beats all odds and just celebrated his 61st birthday. He enjoys the company of all the employees, so I call him the residence landlord. His favorite sport is wrestling, which he watches with a can or bottle of soda.

David

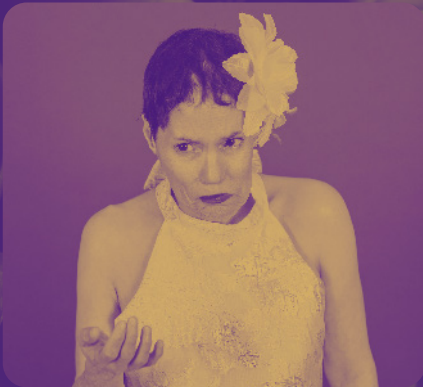

David is a young man who always asks for cookies and chocolate. He loves to watch Mickey Mouse and smiles a lot.

Forever Family

Lenin

A non-verbal man, Lenin is a fan of Celine, loves wearing jewelry on his neck and wrist, and enjoys listening to Spanish songs. He calls everyone "Papi."

Innenia

She's affectionately known as "Mimi," loves balloons and enjoys Spanish music.

2022 Honorees

Cynthia McFadden

The 2022 Heart of a Champion Award

The Heart of a Champion Award is given to an individual whose commitment to family and community transforms the landscape for underserved and marginalized populations. As Senior Legal and Investigative Correspondent at NBC News, Cynthia McFadden has been on the front lines for 30 years, covering a vast array of news events from the trial of O.J. Simpson to 9/11. Viewers who follow McFadden will understand why she is particularly proud of the work she has done covering humanitarian issues, with a focus on human rights abuses against women and children. Winner of two Overseas Press Club Awards, three Emmys, the Peabody, the Loeb and the Edward R. Murrow Award, McFadden also received the Matrix Award as an exceptional woman in broadcasting.

Michael W. Castellano

The 2022 Catherine White Achievement Award

The Catherine White Achievement Award is presented to a person whose career achievement benefits at-risk populations, particularly those with intellectual and developmental disabilities, children and youth. Michael W. Castellano, co-owner of Staten Island's Supreme Italian Market, was inspired by a special bond with a cousin and an uncle, both on the autism spectrum. As a result, Castellano and his family have directed their passion and resources into helping people with special needs, channeling the success of their business into philanthropic endeavors, including the founding of a nonprofit called Billy's Cause, in memory of his uncle.

Douglas P. Catalano, Esq.

The 2022 HeartShare Visionary Award

The HeartShare Visionary Award is presented to a person whose work honors our past, shapes our present and transforms our future by building a foundation for success for HeartShare and the community it supports. Douglas P. Catalano, who began an impressive legal career as a law clerk to a federal judge and is now a partner with Clifton Budd & DeMaria, was also inspired by a family member who has autism. Catalano is both a supporter and a contributor to HeartShare. "My wife Judi and I have a particular affection for the wonderful services that HeartShare provides," he says. "We understand the challenges and we're very appreciative of HeartShare's aims and mission."

My deepest and sincerest thanks to each and every HeartShare employee - regardless of position – past and present – whom I have the great pleasure and honor to call my co-worker.

Through both good and difficult times, you have shown our community-at-large that what we do is necessary, thoughtful, substantive and worthwhile. You don't flinch, you just do.

You give new meaning to the expression,
"When the going gets tough, the tough get going."

Most of all, you have given those oh-so-many whom are being or have been served by our programs for almost 110 years one of the greatest gifts anyone can receive – the dignity of being a loved and respected human being.

May your futures be filled with blessings,

our special message for

BILL GUARINELLO

As many believe, life is an uncharted journey. Our journey focuses on our family first and supporting your devotion to HeartShare over the past five plus decades.

You face challenges with steadfast determination, bolstered by your strong values, loyalty and dedication. You personify humaneness, fostered by your faith, compassion and hopes for what can be.

You dig deeper, believe stronger, never give up on life and trust more fully in a loving God.

That is who you are and that is who you always will be. That is why we trust in you and love you so much. That is why we are so very proud of you and your unselfish accomplishments.

That is why there are more achievements yet to come.

As we continue our journey, we are comforted in knowing that the man we love today will be the same man we will love in every tomorrow. God bless you, Billy G!

Your family,

Donna, Ali, Santo and the joy of your life, Gianna Nicole

Once again, on behalf of the Benfante Family, I would like to congratulate all of the HeartShare Gala Honorees, both past and present.

It has been my distinguished honor to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of HeartShare since 2011. It has been shown that this wonderful group of people, whom I have been blessed to be a part of, have enhanced the lives of so many individuals and their respective families and, for that success, I wish to thank the Board itself, as well as all of my fellow Board Members.

I am reminded daily of what HeartShare means to individuals with special needs, as my son Joseph Benfante, Jr. resides in the Marian and Anthony Attardi Residence, located in Brooklyn, NY. There he has achieved the independence that would not have been possible if it had not been for HeartShare, which has given him the opportunity to live life to the fullest with a group of people he refers to as his "other family."

I will forever be grateful to HeartShare Human Services of New York and the individuals who are a part of Joseph's everyday life.

We will never know when our time is up.
In the blink of an eye everything could change.
Life is too short to waste time living in fear, worry, hate or resentment.
We all have different paths to walk but are on this road together.
Don't forget to tell those you care about you love them and how much they mean to you.
Remind them on a daily basis.
It's easy to be selfish in a world like ours but take care of your brothers and sisters.
Spread the love.
There is already too much hate.
Be the light you were intended to be.
Don't practice jealousy.
Never dull someone's flame.
Let's build each other up and set this world ablaze.
